TECH SESSION– Family Affair

Since there were no scheduled tech sessions this month—thought I would share the progress on Ben’s (Bernie’s) Healey. Bernie and Ben have been working hard –Tom (Ben’s oldest) is learning a few in’s and outs—gotta start somewhere. Ben is learning to weld and doing quite well. Some progress is getting made—it may get on the road again. Car parts are still in hibernation in the back room waiting for their turn.

Last of the old frame...

Moving right along—finished with the old frame and progress on the rebuilt car looking good.

Third time this car has been rebuilt—3rd time is a charm!
